CLERK'S NOTES

DATES:	Initial Pre-trial Conference Held
11/1/04	Defendant files a motion to continue the initial pre-trial conference for 90 days and to exclude time.
	Court listens to defense counsel on his motion. Court puts the case on two tracks. Defendant has one week to file a motion to suppress accompanied by a supporting memorandum of law and any appropriate affidavit.
	Government will file its response one week later. If necessary court will conduct an evidentiary hearing.
	Court will also set a trial schedule in the event that the motion to suppress is denied. Defendant makes an oral motion to suppress in court. Speedy trial act is stopped as a result of the defendant's oral motion.
	Pre-trial procedural order to issue.
